

Corinne Heggie Named One of Best Lawyers’ Women of Influence

Congratulations to counsel Corinne Heggie for her inclusion on the “Women of Influence” list curated by Best Lawyers Spring 2017 Business Issue and the Coalition of Women’s Initiatives in Law. The awards were peer nominated and endorsed for those committed to outstanding work in their areas of expertise. Katherine Minarik, Immediate Past-President of the Coalition, wrote of those awarded: “Every women lawyer faces obstacles in her career. Sometime because we are unlucky. Something because we are women. Sometimes just because the career path we’ve chosen is not easy. We women lawyers know this because we live this... Surrounded by these women, I’ve seen some of those big obstacles we all face start to shrink as we tackle them together.”
