

*“Advice and counsel that is concise, timely,
on-point and cost-effective.”*

Firm’s Philanthropy “With a Twist” Featured in Chicago Daily Law Bulletin

The Chicago Daily Law Bulletin headlined the Firm’s December 11 holiday party, featuring the event’s unique twist. Guests chose an ornament representing one of three charities and then decorated a holiday tree with their choice. At the end of the evening, the respective charities received a contribution from the Firm based on the number of ornaments placed on the tree for a given charity. The three charities receiving contributions are Midwest Dachshund Rescue, Keep Chicago Beautiful, and KT’s Kids – all of which the Firm’s partners are active participants in. Click here to read the full article.